

Let's Build Your

Resource Portal + Website

Are you a busy community-engaged person, group, organization or network who . . .

- is part of multiple communities?
- has resources scattered on laptops, computers & various platforms?
- cares about organizing people and knowledge?
- needs your tech to be affordable, easy-to-use & low maintenance?
- is tired of online platforms that are designed to sell and distract?

Get organized with a simple portal
for your people, topics & resources

- drag-and-drop resources from your hard drive or any internet site
- hone your presence with easy curation tools
- add calendar, image galleries, discussions, blogs & more
- integrate with your current online presence, or build and host your complete website with us
- connect & share with your people, groups & organizations
- get started in minutes

Do it Yourself . . .
